

CONTENT

Fill in the circle before the correct answer.

- After the American Revolution new settlers moved west of the Appalachian Mountains to find _____.
 - (a) religious freedom
 - (b) free labor
 - (c) gold
 - (d) cheap farmland
- Lewis and Clark explored the territory of _____.
 - (a) Florida
 - (b) Louisiana
 - (c) California
 - (d) Tennessee
- The journey of the Cherokee who were forced to move from their homes in the Southeast to Indian Territory became known as the _____.
 - (a) Wilderness Road
 - (b) Trail of Tears
 - (c) Louisiana Purchase
 - (d) Indian Removal Act
- Andrew Jackson differed from other Presidents because he was not _____.
 - (a) born wealthy
 - (b) a judge
 - (c) elected
 - (d) a military hero
- President Jefferson tried to purchase New Orleans because he wanted to _____.
 - (a) move Native Americans there
 - (b) impress Great Britain
 - (c) form a new state
 - (d) keep the port open for American goods

Read each sentence. Write the name of the person from the box that it describes.

Benjamin Banneker	Thomas Jefferson	John Ross
Sequoyah	Tecumseh

- _____ helped lay out the District of Columbia.
- _____ led Native American forces against the United States in the War of 1812.
- _____ developed the first written Cherokee alphabet.
- _____ tried to stop the United States government from taking over Cherokee lands by taking his case to the Supreme Court.
- As third President, _____ decided to make the Louisiana Purchase.

SKILLS

Use the maps below to answer the questions.

- Name five states that were formed or partly formed from the land acquired by the Louisiana Purchase.

- In 1803 the land that later became Arizona was part of what colony?

- The land that later became the state of Maine belonged to what state in 1803?

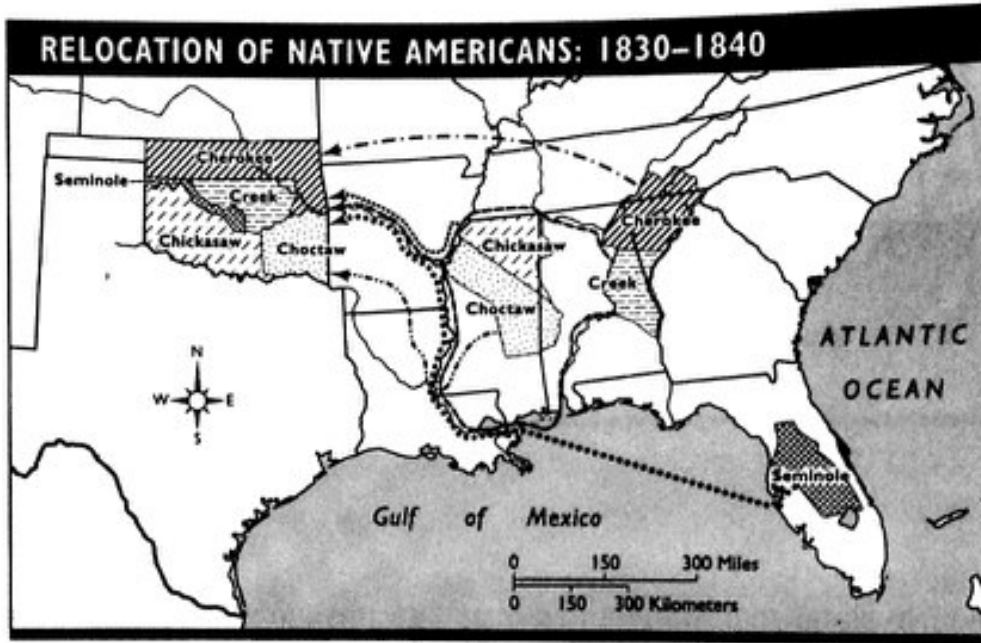

- What two states were formed from the Mississippi Territory?

- In 1803 what country owned most of the land that became Canada?

WRITING

Write a short paragraph to answer each question. If you need more room, continue writing on the back of this page.

1. The map below shows some of the results of the Indian Removal Act of 1830. How do you think people living in the areas shown on the map felt about the act? Describe at least two different points of view.

2. What caused the War of 1812, and why was it important to the new American nation?
